DAILY STUDENT BULLETIN – UPPER

Friday 27th March Day 5 2015

Student Reflection

Lord help us to be sensitive to the presence of other people around us. We are thankful for the considerate people in our lives who treat us with respect and love. Amen.

We wish each member of our Parade College community a safe and happy holiday and Easter time.

This is the Tally (as it stands) for Caritas Project Compassion 2015:

</tbody>

Note: Apologies to Bodkin as about $400 was added twice last week by accident. Also be aware that some more money is to come in tomorrow (Friday), so the totals may change!!

Thank you to all students. Many of you gave generously and sacrificed money you could have spent on yourself. Thanks too to all those teachers who worked tirelessly throughout Lent to raise funds for Caritas. Well done to all of you.

Science CLUB 2015
All students wishing to be involved in SCIENCE CLUB in Term 2, come to E35 TODAY for an important meeting. Science Club is a “Myth Busters” style club where students perform experiments that they couldn’t ordinarily do in a regular Science class. If there’s something you’ve always wanted to try in Science, come down and suggest it!

SPELLING EXTRAVAGANZA!
You thought the Annual Paradian Spelling Challenge was big, well it must be contagious because Channel Ten is casting for entrants in a new competition-style show: The Great Australian Spelling Bee.
If you fancy your ability to spell under pressure and like the sound of being on television competing in this kind of event, go to https://wordplay.castasugar.com
